3 steps to living well

Eliminate. Make lifestyle choices that result in optimum health. Exercise regularly, get enough quality sleep and eliminate toxic stress in your life. Of course, don't smoke, drink to excess or abuse drugs. Regularly cleansing the body of toxins (detoxification) is vital. Toxins can be eliminated from the body with the right foods and AIM products.

Nourish. Eat a balanced and sensible diet built around whole foods. Avoid overeating and large portions. Drink eight glasses of pure water daily, and use AIM whole-food concentrates and supplements to help nourish your cells, enabling them to operate at peak efficiency.

Replenish. Our bodies often require nutritional supplementation to replenish vital nutrients. As shown in this catalog, The AIM Companies™ offers a variety of products to assist with your nutritional intake and health.

Body Booster Starter Packs

Plant-based nutrition that may enhance all body systems. Taking BarleyLife, Just Carrots, RediBeets and Herbal Fiberblend on a daily basis may result in a wide range of benefits, including balanced body pH and increased energy.
